PRINCELY GIFT FROM TONOPAH MINE.

THE gift of the Tonopah Mining company to the Red Cross was heralded yesterday as the greatest in magnitude of any on the Pacific coast. The investment in Liberty Bonds does not call for the same praise as that deserved by the giving out of a full treasury but with a free and open heart, an amount that will go far toward establishing the name of Tonopah as the home of generous givers. It was not surprising that Liberty Bonds brought out a quick response for that was merely lending your money to the government at a high rate of interest with the assurance that it was one of the best gilt-edged investments to be had in the whole universe. Corporations are proverbially cold blooded and careless of public opinion when it comes to a matter of charity or philanthropy, but the Philadelphia interests represented in Tonopah are entitled to unstinted praise for their action in upholding the reputation of Nevada for giving cheerfully and willingly. At this rate another record will be added to the laurels held by the camp and investors will begin to realize that the men who are making money from the mines are among Nature's own noblemen. They do not oppress labor, extort false profits or engage in any business that advances at the expense of others. Their wealth comes from the pure and wholesome womb of Nature and every man engaged in the industry is compensated well for his share in extracting this wealth. There is no taint or taint about this business. There is no haggling or bickering with your neighbor and there is no competitor to punish. The product is clean money, pure and immaculate. The silver extracted from the mines of Tonopah leaves no heartburnings or tearful regrets for it is the pure treasure left covered up by a thoughtful Creator for the benefit of the diligent miner to add to the purchasing power of the world's resources. During the war it will be found that the mines and miners of Nevada will always be found in the foremost rank ready and eager to respond to the call of country.

SECOND CLASS MAIL RATES.

TO READ the metropolitan newspapers would almost convince the public that congress proposed some appalling indiscretion in adding to the mailing privileges of the newspapers by adopting the zone system of assessing the cost of distribution. To the publisher who is eking out a meager living in a mining camp or small town or village, the action of congress will be applauded as a wise move and one that should have been adopted years ago when the mail order magazines and blanket sheet Sunday publications gained such a foothold in the land. The small daily or weekly circulates strictly within its own bailiwick and the number of papers sent outside the third zone would not bankrupt any editor without a week's payroll in sight. The imposition of zone taxes would be a distinct advantage and benefit to the local newspaper, for it would serve to raise a barrier against the encroachments of the bloated city dailies and their alluring advertising which charms so many dollars from distant circles and beggars the local merchant who finds he has nothing left but the credit system if he wishes to remain in business. The magazines that are carried westward in trainloads can well afford to share their profits with the government when it is understood that some of these publications receive as high as $5000 a page for an advertisement appearing in a single issue. Under the present system it is manifestly unfair to continue carrying these publications by mail at rates that are less than the lowest class freight such as coal and iron and that require no specially equipped cars or personal attention from the moment it leaves the shipping station until it is delivered to the consignee. These magazines are carried at an annual loss of $20,000,000 to the mail service and it would be better for the government to cease carrying them at all rather than permit them to allocate cars that can be used to better advantage in handling the transportation of troops or munitions and supplies for the allies and our own armies.

By all means therefore, let the zone rate apply and give the small publisher a chance to fill his own field without having to compete with overgrown contemporaries from the cities.

ORIENT BUYING SILVER.

THERE cannot be any beating around the bush when it comes to appraising the value of silver, although there does not appear to be any foundation for the report from San Francisco that the metal had passed the 80-cent mark and was selling at 81 cents. Left to itself silver is bound, not alone to reach 81 cents, but 90 cents and perhaps more, for it is in demand as it never was before with the United States as one of the chief buyers. The boys in the field must have money and the steady influx of American soldiers in Europe implies that they must carry with them the necessary amount for the monthly payday. Gold will stay at home while the white metal will go abroad. In foreign lands the purchasing price of silver is the equal of gold and is far more preferable to paper currency for either hoarding or preserving against future demands. The manager of the Hong Kong & Shanghai Banking Corporation cites figures to show that India has imported $75,000,000 worth of silver during a comparatively short period. At present Calcutta is taking about 1,000,000 ounces weekly from the United States and the United States mints are consuming about 500,000 to 600,000 ounces more every week since early spring. This approximates the entire silver production of the United States and Canada leaving little or nothing for other export or domestic consumption in the arts and industries. On top of this comes the fact that the silver output of Canada is bound to show a great diminution owing to the scarcity of labor and the increased cost of supplies which has reached such a grievous stage that it has been called to the attention of the imperial government.

Another argument for food regulation is cited in the fact that the price of canned tomatoes has dropped from $2.25 to $1.80 a case without the retailer yielding a cent to the consumer.

Jawn D. is getting there in true Carnegie style with his millions. His latest contribution of $5,000,000 for the Red Cross should assist in placing additional jewels on the pearly streets of Paradise.

The Liberty Loan committee of the second federal reserve district talking in New York says: "No other factor contributed so much to the success as the intelligent and consistent co-operation of the newspapers." Yet there are merchants who say it does not pay to advertise.

Berlin editors are tossing restlessly these hot night in the grasp of nightmares ridden by Uncle Sam but the assertion that President Wilson is owned by Wall street is exorcisingly funny to the man on this side of the water who knows of the relations between the two interests.

The sinking of one of Jawn D.'s oil tankers may have cast oil on the troubled waters of the Mediterranean but it failed to save the ship from the enemies of this country.

The Elko Free Press is not averse to saying a good word for the dry farmers who have been doing their bit in bringing that big country to the front as a leader in wheat production.

Witch hazel is advancing so the barber will probably stop rubbing it in.

MINSTREL AND COMEDY FOR BENEFIT OF THE RELIEF CORPS

The Tonopah Women's Relief Corps has arranged for a double benefit at the Airdome on Monday and Tuesday evenings for the purpose of raising funds for conducting the excellent work of the order in Tonopah. The ladies under the direction of Mrs. Will Thomas, their president, are beginning early to make provision for the coming time when they will again be called upon to respond to the cry of distress from women and children left without their natural protectors and without any provision against the inclemency of the rigorous season. The Relief Corps is the only body that has ever looked after the welfare of the poor in Tonopah or sought to alleviate the sufferings of the worthy unfortunate and everybody should encourage them in the laudable effort.

"The Cabaret Minstrels" and the "Cannibal Isle" will be presented under direction of Harry Ennis, who has had extended experience in conducting attractions in the western country. The best local talent has been in training for the past three weeks and the rehearsals have all shown an excellent quality of ability. Among those in the cast are: Clarence Byrne, Bergen Murphy, Emmett McVeigh, Albert Gilbert.

"Wrong Number."
 There is no place where the disposition of a person is better shown than at the telephone when one accidentally or otherwise rings up the wrong number. Then the answer to the signal tells the sort of person the respondent is. Sometimes he gets very mad and spitefully answers and then with a bang hangs up the receiver, as if the man who rings him up has done so with malice prepense. But sometimes the respondent answers with a fellow feeling in his heart and, knowing it is no fault of the person at the other end of the line, speaks gently and kindly and really makes of the accident a pleasant incident. How much we all prefer to deal with the latter individual—Exchange.

well scattered and Cincinnati won 5 to 2.

(By Associated Press.)
 PHILADELPHIA, June 23.—Dell's fumbler of Bancroft's grounder which filled the bases was the big factor in Philadelphia's victory over Brooklyn, 5 to 3. Oeschger was given wonderful support.

(By Associated Press.)
 BOSTON, June 23.—Boston defeated New York 5 to 3 in the final game of the series. Maranville was the feature player with four hits, one of which was a double, in three times at bat.

MACHINERY MEN COME TO ATTEND CONTEST

W. E. Carr and J. A. Gustafsen, representing the Ingersoll-Rand Machinery company; F. H. Dean, representing the Denver Rock Drill company, and F. O. Bosk, representing the Cochrane Machinery company, are all in Tonopah busy arranging for the use of their machines in the big jackhammer drilling contest which will be staged here July 4th and 5th. Wittenberg is moving the big piece of granite this afternoon to its position in front of the Nevada First National bank where the big contest will be staged. Monday carpenters and plumbers will be busy placing the platform and running the air line from the Jim Butler shaft to the stone and the committee expects to have all arrangements complete for the staging of this contest by the middle of the week.

Entries are pouring in on Chairman Harry R. Grier and stand as follows: Carley and Spencer, of the Cracker Jack, Goldfield; Andy Linnell, of the Round Mountain, and Bert Wilder, of the White Caps, Manhattan. It is expected that fully 30 or 40 men will appear on the big rock and betting on the outcome of the contest is the liveliest seen in Tonopah for years, due to the uncertainty of just how deep the machines can drill in this hard granite and the number of men and number of machines that will drill. So few people have ever seen a contest of this sort and in fact there have been so few held in the United States that the talent is all at sea when it comes to picking the winner.

Don't fail to visit the training quarters of Malone at the Northern and Salvator at the gym tomorrow afternoon and see these fast bear cats go through their training stunts for the big boxing carnival at the Airdome on July 4th. With the boxers on the ground and the machinery representatives here, things are commencing to hum.

Mr. Bell arrived today from the Reese River country and states that

POVERTY OF WEALTH.

There Are Many, Many Things That Money Cannot Buy.

If you have wealth you can purchase a hundred outfits of wearing apparel, but you can only wear one at a time. Socrates never owned but one pair of shoes, but his name is immortal. If you have wealth you can purchase beautiful paintings and adorn your home with statues. That wouldn't bring you happiness. If you have wealth you can purchase furniture inlaid with gold and upholstered with fine fabrics. That doesn't mean contentment.

If you have wealth you can purchase a great park and erect a splendid mansion, but tradition tells us that there was a very happy man who lived in a tub and when the king came to see him and asked what he could desire from the king Diogenes replied, "That you would step from between me and the sun." If you have wealth you can possess an organ with golden pipes, but Beethoven composed his immortal symphonies on a cheap harpsichord. If you have wealth you can equip a luxurious studio, but Turner painted in a garret and mixed his colors in a broken teacup.

Money can purchase copies of Sir Joshua Reynolds, but God gives the sunset away free. Money can employ musicians to perform for a private concert, but the song of the lark in the tree and the music of children's laughter is for the millionaire and the poor man alike. Wealth cannot purchase the great things of life. It cannot buy a contented mind and a serene life. It cannot purchase goodness and beauty. —Dale H. Carnegie in Lestie's.

everybody in that section will be on hand to take in the big show and arrangements are under way to have a broncho busting contest in which the cowboys of that section will undertake to ride a famous outlaw horse from Cloverdale. The cowboys, Indians and cowgirls are all entering in the running races which will be staged on the afternoon of July 5th and some rare sport is assured when Starter Chas. F. Wittenberg calls them to the post. The following will be the lineup of children's sports on July 4th starting at 1 p. m. on Main street:
